FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Corrections, Department of Social Services, Department of Public Safety – Capitol Police, – Missouri State Water Patrol and the – Missouri State Highway Patrol assume the proposed legislation would have no fiscal impact on their agencies.

Officials from the Office of State Courts Administrator assume the proposed legislation would have no fiscal impact on the courts.

Officials from the Office of Prosecution Services assume prosecutors could absorb the costs of the proposed legislation within existing resources.

Officials from the Office of State Public Defender assume existing staff could provide representation for those few cases arising where indigent persons were charged with domestic assault in the third degree. Passage of more than one bill increasing penalties on existing crimes or creating new crimes would require the State Public Defender System to request increased appropriations to cover the cumulative cost of representing indigent persons accused in the now more serious cases or in the new additional cases.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

DESCRIPTION

The proposed legislation would decrease the penalty for domestic assault in the third degree from a class A misdemeanor to a class C misdemeanor, when the person knowingly puts a family or household member in apprehension of immediate physical injury. The proposal would also clarify that convictions for assault in the third degree, when the victim is a family or household member, will count as a first or second conviction when determining whether the defendant has committed a third domestic assault, a class D felony.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
